A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

“Each one of God’s calls is an initiative of His love. He is the one who always takes the initiative. He calls you.”

Then the pope considered three main calls that God makes to all: “God calls to life, He calls to faith, and He calls to a particular state in life: ‘I want you here.’”

- God’s first call is to *life, through which He makes us persons; it is an individual call because God does not make things in series.
- Then God calls us to *faith and to become part of His family as children of God.
- Lastly, God calls us to a particular state in life: to give of ourselves on the path of matrimony, or that of the priesthood or the consecrated life.

These are different ways of realizing God’s design that He has for each one of us that is always a design of love. But God calls always. And the greatest joy for every believer is to respond to that call, offering one’s entire being to the service of God and our brothers and sisters.

The call of God, the pope said, “reaches us in a thousand ways – through others, happy or sad events.”
