Celebration of the Eucharist. We will also visit the tomb of Saint Carlo Acutis in the Basilica of Santa Maria Maggiore. Overnight in Assisi

Day 7: Sunday, Sep 6 – Franciscan Sites in Assisi

This morning we ascend by local minibus to the Hermitage of the Carceri, nestled in the quiet oak forests above Assisi, where St. Francis withdrew in solitude for prayer and contemplation. We then continue to the Convent of San Damiano, where the crucifix spoke to Francis with the words "Rebuild my Church," sparking his radical embrace of poverty and mission. After free time for lunch (not included), we visit the Sanctuary of Rivotorto, the stone shelter where Francis and his first companions lived in radical simplicity, laying the foundation of the Franciscan movement. In the afternoon we enter the magnificent Basilica of St. Francis, the great double church adorned with Giotto's frescoes of Francis's life and housing the tomb of the saint himself. Here we celebrate Mass, joining pilgrims from around the world in prayer at the resting place of the Poverello of Assisi. Dinner and fellowship close the day. Overnight in Assisi.
