WEEKLY REFLECTION

Family and Traditions

Many of our families gathered over these recent days and expressed traditions established long ago: whether it was the menu; what you wore; what you read, sang, or listened to; what you put on the tree; or when you exchanged (or will yet exchange) gifts.

It is wonderful to pass on these traditions to the next generation! But why? Is it for the sake of maintaining the tradition? Is it for the sake of having a family culture or identity? Or is it because the tradition expresses something deeper in our hearts that would be even more devastating to lose?

Our traditions are our own ways of expressing what we believe and what motivates us throughout a lifetime. The traditions in the church are a model – every time we use special vestments, light certain candles, decorate the church a certain way, and read and sing certain texts, we are maintaining our memory of what God has done for us and what He has promised to do for us.

And the Eucharist is pre-eminent in this. We call it the Memorial (Greek: Anamnesis) because it is exactly in “not forgetting” that we hold onto what would otherwise be threatened by the forces of evil in world and our own sufferings.

Of course, we are even stronger when we remember this together with family, those given to us by God (the friends you don’t choose).

May our commemoration of the Lord’s Birth and the feasts over the remaining weeks of the Christmas Season help us enter more deeply into the mystery of our families and our faith, especially sharing in God’s mercy. And may the Holy Family, Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, watch over you and lead you deeper into that spousal love that reflects the love of our Lord Jesus Christ for His Church. Merry Christmas!

--Fr. Paul M. Nguyen, OMV

Catechesis Corner O Lord God of goodness and mercy, Who in the midst of an evil and sinful world hast presented to the society of the redeemed the Holy Family of Nazareth as a spotless mirror of piety, justice and love, behold how the family is being undermined on all sides, every effort being made to desecrate it by stripping it of faith, religion and morals. Safeguard in our homes the domestic virtues, for these alone will ensure us harmony and peace. Under Thy paternal gaze, O Lord, and with confidence in Thy Providence and in the loving patronage of Jesus, Mary and Joseph, the family will become a sanctuary of virtue and a school of wisdom. Amen.
(from Prayer for Christian Families ~ Pope Pius XII)
